Rule 4 of the Racing Rules of Sailing states: "The responsibility for a boat's decision to participate in a race or to continue racing is theirs alone. Sailing is by its nature an unpredictable sport and therefore involves an element of risk. By taking part in this regatta each /competitor agrees and acknowledges that:

- They are aware of the inherent element of risk and accept responsibility for the exposure of themselves, their crew, and their boat to such inherent risk whilst taking part in Club activities.
- They are responsible for themselves, their crew, their boat, and their other property whether afloat or ashore.
- They accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent caused by their own actions or omissions.
- Their boat is in good order equipped to sail in the regatta, and they are fit to participate.
- The provision of a race management team, safety boats and other officials and volunteers does not relieve them of their own responsibilities.
